A HEREFORD MAN was killed Friday morning of last week when the car in which he was riding slammed into this tree on the expressway just north of Canyon. Dead is Pablo Vasalduva. Another Hereford man, Apolonio Dennett was injured in the mishap.

Hereford Man Killed When Auto Hits Tree

A 51-year-old Hereford man was killed instantly early Friday morning of last week when the car in which he was riding crashed into a tree on the Expressway about a half mile north of Canyon.

Dead is Pablo Vasalduva. He was believed to have been killed instantly. The accident occurred about 6 o'clock.

Also riding in the car was Apolonio Dennett, 23, Hereford.

The car was traveling south at the time of the accident. Officers said the two men had been in Amarillo and were en route to the Canyon Santa Fe depot to report for work.

Highway patrolman Bill Clifton of Canyon said the two were members of a track working crew employed by the Santa Fe.

Clifton quoted Dennett as saying Vasalduva was driver of the automobile. However, Clifton said his report would carry Dennett as the driver.

Officers said the car belonged to Dennett. It was demolished.

Canyon City Officers Roy Adams and J. M. Kendrick arrived at the scene ahead of the highway patrol. Officer Kendrick said Dennett was out of the car walking around when the city policemen arrived.

Dennett was taken to Neblett Hospital in a LaGrone ambulance. He had suffered a cut on the chest, a puncture wound on the leg and multiple bruises and lacerations. He was treated and dismissed.

Kendrick said a nurse who happened to be passing by worked over Vasalduva but to no avail.

Clifton quoted Dennett as having said he took two men to their car at an Amarillo cafe before heading south to Canyon. He was quoted as having said Vasalduva took over the wheel at Washington Street.

Funeral services for Vasalduva were under direction of Gililland Funeral Home of Hereford. A spokesman for the funeral home said that as far as could be learned Vasalduva is survived by a wife, Juanita, and one son.

Alan Ratliff Has Resigned

Alan Ratliff, city tax assessor-collector, has resigned.

Ratliff, who began working for the city as a police patrolman four years ago, replaced Burney Slack who resigned last year. Ratliff will be a cost analyst for Collins Radio Corporation in Richardson near Dallas.

Ratliff, who attended Monterey High School and Texas Tech in Lubbock, received a BBA degree from West Texas State University in May.

He is married and the father of two daughters, Susan, 5, and Marjorie, 3.

Persistent Thief Takes Cars Here

If at first you don't succeed is an old proverb that applies even to car stealing.

Officers here say footprints link one suspect to two ill fated and one successful car thefts over the week end.

The suspect stole one car in Amarillo and ran out of gasoline just north of Canyon. He apparently walked on to Canyon and helped himself to a 1961 Chevrolet at Eddie Knowles' used car lot. An ignition key had been left in that car.

That vehicle ran out of gasoline a mile south of town.

The suspect apparently walked back to town and took several keys from the Knowles used car lot office after smashing a plate glass window to gain entry.

Officers surmise that the thief tried keys in cars until he came across a 1966 Pontiac Bonneville and matched it with the proper key. This time his luck was better. The Pontiac had enough fuel in it to get him out of the country.

Huge Stones Rip Crops

Hail Hits County

Needed Moisture Comes With Storm

Baseball-sized hail and strong winds ripped through Randall County Sunday evening, causing damages estimated at well over $100,000.

The storm, which started north of Amarillo, moved across the east part of Randall County and cut a wide swath leaving crops beaten to the ground, windows shattered and large amounts of much-needed moisture for later wheat planting.

Rainfall Tuesday evening varied from .30 inches at the Randall County Sheriff's office to .91 inches at Buffalo Lake. Other amounts received include .25 inches at Umbarger; .40 inches at the J. J. Leavitt's in the Jowell Community; and .50 at Phil Fortin's north of the city.

Rain totals Sunday evening varied from about two inches in Palo Duro Canyon to less than one-half inch at Buffalo Lake. Most of the moisture fell in less than a 45-minute period beginning about 7 p.m.

Local insurance agents estimated claims on hail and wind damaged crops, homes and automobiles would run well in excess of $100,000.

The largest single damage reported was 15 miles southwest of Happy where a drilling rig owned by Joe Currie of Canyon blew to the ground.

The 35-ton rig, that stood 75 feet, was pushed to the ground by a straight wind from the north, residents in the area related.

Although final tally of damages to the rig was not known early Wednesday, an estimate of $25,000 was made.

At the Louis Hinders dairy farm about 10 miles south east of Canyon, hail stones larger than baseballs fell for several minutes. The storm began about 7 o'clock.

Nine window panes were smashed in the hired hand's house occupied by the Abel Perez family and two plate glass windows and two window panes were knocked out in the Hinders home.

The dairyman said glass from the windows in his home were

Jaycees Plan Auctions For Girlstown

Canyon Jaycee board of directors outlined plans for a Girlstown Christmas project at an official board meeting Tuesday evening.

The project will begin in late September with an auction of donated goods with all proceeds going to Girlstown for a "Christmas for the girls", according to Carl Miller. Auctions will also be staged by the Jaycees during October and November.

"Last spring, we found out that a lot of folks wanted to help the girls...but they had things to donate that the girls couldn't use...so what we are going to do is gather up all type of donations and sell them to other folks here who can use them and then turn all of the funds over to Girlstown," said Miller, explaining that the funds would be earmarked for Christmas gifts.

Miller said that the Jaycees would auction donated goods as well as goods on consignment for a small fee. Meade Michael will serve as auctioneer. Location and dates for the auctions will be announced in the near future.

Jaycees directing the project will be Delbert Türk, president, Weyman Brown, Jim Scott and Carl Miller.

Eagles Meet Blackhawks

BY JON LOW

The Canyon Eagles open the 1967 grid campaign against perhaps the most traditionally rugged football team in the Panhandle when they go to meet the Phillips Blackhawks Friday at 8 p.m. at Phillips.

Led by all-staters Mark Hatley and Craig Hunter and a flock of returning all-district selections, the Blackhawks have already been tabbed as the fifth-ranked Class AA team in Texas.

Canyon, hard-hit by a rash of injuries to key personnel, faces a demanding task in switching players to fill vacancies left by hurt gridders. The key to Eagle success lies in the ability of Phil Swatzell to make the change from running back to quarterback. Swatzell, the fastest man on the team with 10.3 speed in the hundred, will direct primarily a running attack until he masters the passing game.

Operating at Swatzell's old fullback post will be ex-guard Dwayne Gerber. Eagle Coach Jim Greenwood hails Gerber as doing a "real fine job" at the new slot, despite a bothersome shoulder injury. "He's the quickest one we've got," commented Greenwood.

Two sophomores have worked their way into starting positions for the Blackhawk clash. Hard-running Gary Gilbert is

Board Holding Night Sessions

Canyon School District board of equalization went into night sessions Tuesday in an effort to hear as quickly as possible more than 50 persons who were not satisfied with assessment of school taxes.

Board chairman Hosea Foster said the board will continue to hold sessions until everyone is heard. The board averaged hearing three persons an hour Tuesday. The hearings began Tuesday morning.

In an exhibit before the equalization board, Attorneys Byron Singleton and John Scott Jr. representing Randall County Taxpayers League, contended that a number of pieces of property had not been assessed for taxation as they should have been.

These items included time deposits in banks, demand deposits, household goods, grain in storage, corporate stocks and bonds, jewelry and several others.

Tax assessor-collector Conway Kuykendall testified before the equalizatign board that he he had not assessed bank accounts, savings, household furniture and a number of items mentioned.

Attendance Record Is Set

Attendance for the second season of "TEXAS" bested the outdoor drama's outing last year by more than 3,000, according to figures compiled by the show sponsoring Panhandle Heritage Foundation.

Final tally for the 59 scheduled performances this year in Palo Duro Canyon State Park was 64,733--a total of 3,395 over the 61,338 recorded last season. The production closed Labor Day with an attendance of 1,001.

Although one performance could not be completed because of rain and the audience was able to see only the first act, there were no show cancellations due to inclement weather.

According to those who have worked with outdoor theatre, the second season of a production usually has the lowest attendance record. By the third year, a show is generally known and accepted.

A gaining nation-wide recognition, "TEXAS" was represented at travel shows, magazines and newspaper coverage from throughout the country was sought and 125,000 brochures were mailed to travel agencies and motor hotels in the US and abroad.

More than 100,000 have seen the production for the two summer stints and the 100th performance was recently held.

One change this year over last, pointed out Raymond Raillard, executive vice president of the foundation, was more states were represented in 1967. There was an average of 25 states represented nightly and from three to five foreign countries.

Many of the 60-odd cast members in the Paul Green production were from Canyon and

WT Booster Picnic Set

A picnic social for the West Texas State University "basketball boosters club" and all interested sports fans will be held at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, September 12, at the Canyon City Club.

WT basketball players and coaches will be special guests for the occasion.

AEC Program Slated Here

Canyon is one of 15 Texas high schools at which "This Atomic World," a high school lecture demonstration program sponsored by the US Atomic Energy Commission, will be presented this month.

The program will be held Sept. 26 at Canyon High School.

The program is designed to foster an increased awareness and understanding among secondary school students of scientific and technical information relating to atomic energy. It consists of a 40-minute assembly presentation followed by classroom sessions with science students.

Units of the demonstration program, operated for the Commission by the Oak Ridge Associated Universities, will appear in the District of Columbia and in 11 states during the month.

Horse Show Is Planned

The second annual Quarter-horse Show, sponsored by the Randall County Sheriff's Posse, will be held Sunday, September 17, at the RCSP arena, east of Canyon.

Registration will begin at 9 a.m. and the cutting contest at 10 a.m. will open the day's activities. Other events scheduled will be in junior and senior divisions for both halter and performance classes along with a division for youth activities.

Leon Cox is serving as show manager. Judges will be Dick Robey of Edmond, Oklahoma and Ralph Guest of Vega.

Early entries may be mailed to the RCSP at Box 905. Entry fees will be $17.50 for cutting classes, $5.00 for halter classes, $10.00 on performance classes, and $2.00 per event in the youth activities division.

SCS Ballot Underway

Community Committee election ballots for seven Soil Conservation Service districts in Randall County will be mailed Friday, said Donald Lloyd, SCS office manager here.

The election, set Friday through Sept. 20, is to select three committee representatives from each community. The 21 community committee men will then elect a Randall County committee, Lloyd explained.

Normal Crowds For Labor Day

Attendance at local recreational areas was about normal for the recent Labor Day celebration.

About 725 automobiles passed through the gates at Palo Duro Canyon State Park Monday, said Jerry Mullican, superintendent. The visitors came to sightsee, attend a "TEXAS" performance and picnic.

"TEXAS" attendance was recorded at 1,001 and over 500 visited the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum on Monday.

Numerous holiday drivers were served free refreshments by Canyon Jaycees at a Labor Day rest stop north of the city.

All Canyon schools and a number of business establishments were closed for the holiday period.

Attendance at Buffalo Lake Refuge, for the weekend, said Manager Gordon Hansen, was tallied at 8,600.

Year Round Lake Study Planned

A one-year study program concerning pollution at Buffalo Lake will begin next week when representatives from several governmental agencies meet at the refuge.

Gordon Hansen, lake manager, said the one-year project was instigated last week after he met in Austin with members of the Texas Water Pollution Control Board, State Health Board, Federal Water Pollution Control Administration, US Public Health Service, US Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife and the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

The meetings next week, which will involve representatives from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, Federal Water Pollution Control Administration and the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, is scheduled to organize sampling procedures to determine the extent and source of the pollution that recently was credited with killing more than 250,000 fish at the lake.

Hansen said the lake, Tierra Blanca Creek and water shed would be tested by the agencies to find the source of the contaminated water.

The agencies are attempting to obtain a mobil laboratory from Ada, Okla. that can be moved to the lake for water sample tests.

The laboratory, Hansen said, would be able to make all the tests that have been previously been made in Austin, "and then some".

"We are going to be pinpointing all the sources of pollution," Hansen declared.

He said the Texas Water Pollution Control Board indicated they would deal with all the regulatory aspects of the year-long program.

"This project," Hansen stated, "has been given very

FROM THE

CANYON RIM

By Troy Martin

I am concerned about a Randall County Taxpayers League effort to have bank accounts taxed.

It might be all right if every school district in the state were required to tax bank accounts and securities. However, this is not being done and I can see people by the scores moving their money to avoid taxation.

I don't see how taxing bank accounts could result in anything but economic disaster for the Canyon community.

I think the Taxpayers League had some legitimate complaints and these appear to be on the way to being remedied.

I'd like to see some member of the Taxpayers League on the board of equalization next year. I think frequent change in membership of the board would be advisable.

With the tax rate already set and the 1967-68 school budget already set, the present board of equalization is operating at a disadvantage. Enough tax money must be collected to meet the budget.

It appears to me that the tax assessor-collector should assess property in the school district, the board of equalization meet and equalize and then the budget and tax rate should be set.

Bill Patke says someone keeps dumping trash on his property west of Canyon.

He says he has cleaned it up several times only to have his acreage littered again. Bill is getting fed up.

This reminds me of a story about the farmer who was having the same trouble as Bill. Town people kept dumping on him. One day he loaded a wagon with junk and garbage and dumped it all in front of city hall.

It looks like John Connally and Preston Smith are squared off for the governor's race next year.

If Connally decides to run he has a definite edge in spite of the fact that he would be running for an unprecedented fourth term.

Smith, a conservative, has always run strong in the Panhandle. He's not likely to run so well next year. He has done a pretty good job of alienating this part of the state where on the otherhand, Connally has his Panhandle fences well mended.

Smith's feud with Senator Grady Hazlewood has done him no good here.

Connally has visited the Panhandle more than any other governor in history.

Don't get the idea that it will be a two-man race. The senior senator, Ralph Yarborough, is toying with the idea of running for governor too. He's being urged on by some of his friends who see nothing for him to lose since he will be secure in his Senate seat if he is defeated.

Don Yarborough might decide to get into the fray if Senator Yarborough doesn't run. If Ralph or Don is in the governor's race, and one of them is likely to be, you can expect the most vocal campaign since Ralph Yarborough faced Allen Shivers more than a dozen years ago.

You can bet that all this is not going to please the President. Johnson would like to see the politics in Texas smooth and uncomplicated.

Johnson has his own problems. His popularity has plummeted and he is beset with insoluable problems at home and abroad.

But a sedate campaign in Texas next year he is not likely to get.

WT Students Take Tour

Twenty-eight West Texas State University students have returned from a "work-study" tour of Mexico which covered an estimated 3,600 miles.

Sponsored by Rev. and Mrs. Marcus Adair of Faith Chapel in Canyon, the group spent several days in Mexico City touring missions and holding meetings. They also took educational tours including the University City, the new Olympic Village which is being built for the Olympics of 1968, and excavations of the ancient city of the Tol Tec Indians.

The group also toured the museum of archaeology in Mexico City where they heard lectures of the culture of man. They visited the onyx stone works and several agriculture students travelled an additional 50 miles from Pueblo, Mexico to appraise land that will be used for building an orphanage mission there.

FHA Officers Are Installed

Martha Sykes was installed as president for the Canyon Junior High School chapter of the Future Homemakers of America in ceremonies Tuesday night at the CJHS auditorium.

Renee Owen, former president of the Canyon High School FHA chapter, conducted the installation rites for officers. Dorothy Pierce gave the opening invocation and Robert Naylor, counsellor at Canyon Junior High School, gave the opening welcome.

Mrs. Roy Lyles, FHA sponsor, outlined activities for the coming year at the meeting. Jo Essary will serve as co-sponsor for the group this year and mother-advisors will be Mrs. Paul Lindsey, Mrs. P. A. Caraway, Mrs. Billy Bible and Mrs. John Brazzil.

Other officers installed were Becky Haley, first vice president; Judy Brummett, second vice president; Connie Ormsby, third vice president; Leta Guill, fourth vice president; Donna Ruthart, fifth vice president, Connie Brazzil, reporter; Kay Smith, secretary; Jeanne Keith, corresponding secretary; Jill Caraway, treasurer; Mary Ann Lindsey, historian; Becky Wesley, parliamentarian; Kathy Gist, pianist; Sherry Heronemus, assistant pianist; Debby Prince, publicity; Kim Tucker and Ginger LaGrone, sargeants at arms; and Jeanine Keith, membership chairman.

The one hour and 45 minute trip, the petite lass related, was fun but tiring for the second grader at Paramount Elementary School.

Daddy accompanied Lauri on her approximately 20-mile journey.

Buffaloes Look Well In First Scrimmage

In their first intra-squad scrimmage of Fall drills, the West Texas State University offensive unit sprayed up 60 points, the number one defensive unit allowed but one touchdown, and head coach Joe Kerbel expressed satisfaction with the team's progress.

Kerbel, who suffered a mild heart attack July 30, sat high in the East stands and watched half of the two-and-one-half hour scrimmage.

Although he often spotted mistakes, he generally was pleased with his team's showing in preparation for the September 16 opener against Montana State in Buffalo Bowl.

Roy Winters, junior quarterback from Rankin, enjoyed a brilliant afternoon as the Buffs' number one field general. Winters connected on 24 of 40 passes for 386 yards and two scores. Winters' scoring passes included a 25-yard strike to halfback Eugene (mercury) Morris and a 56-yard aerial to senior split-end Dave Szymakowski.

Szymakowski, a bonafide all-American candidate, led all receivers for the afternoon. He speared eight passes for 188 yards.

Two sophomore quarterback candidates, Jim Wheeler from Amarillo Caprock and Frank Bettencourt, Jr. of Canyon also impressed. Wheeler connected on nine of 20 passes for 179 yards, but had two of them intercepted. Bettencourt clicked on five of 10 completions for 32 yards and had one swiped.

Leading the Buff ground attack was sophomore sensation Duane Thomas, a 215 pound dynamo from Dallas. Thomas gained 154 yards in 20 carries and scored three times on runs of six, 21 and one yards. He also proved his mettle as a receiver, catching four passes for 47 yards.

Morris, one-half of last year's inside-outside combination with fullback Albie (00) Owens, rambled for 89 yards in 12 rushing attempts. Two of Morris' runs went for touchdowns.

Owens, the Buffs' second leading rusher behind Morris last season, opened the scrimmage as the number one fullback. He was injured on his offensive stab of the afternoon, a 13-yard jaunt. Owens is expected to return to the Buff lineup before the team holds their second scrimmage here Saturday afternoon in Buffalo Bowl. The 2:30 p.m. scrimmage will be open only to members of the following Buff Booster organizations: BAM Club, Touchdown Club, C-Noters, and West Texas Activities Association.

A rugged number one defense, led by quicksilver guard Dave Whitmire, all-Texas Tackle Jimmy Campbell, linebackers Jesse Powell and Byron Jones and defensive backs Rick Barrett, Steve Haterius, Don Tardy and Dee Batts were cited as defensive standouts by the Buff coaching staff.

Vandals Hit CHS Window

Vandals threw a soft drink bottle through a window at Canyon High School over the week end.

About $100 damage was done.

Officers said there was a report Sunday night that someone tried to kick a door down at the Lynette Apartments.

Mrs. J. L. Riley, 2102 Ninth, reported the theft of a $300 ring. She said the ring has been missing since Aug. 25.

Miss Ragle Receiving McMurry Law Degree

Sarah Ragle, a 1965 graduate of McMurry College, is a candidate for a Bachelor of Law degree at the end of the 1967 summer session at the University of Texas Law School.

Miss Ragle is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. Doyle Ragle of 1909 River Oaks in Abilene. Dr. Ragle was pastor at Canyon from 1956-1960 and is now district superintendent of the Abilene District of the Methodist Church.

While at McMurry, Miss Ragle majored in English and speech with a minor in education. She belonged to Alpha Chi, a national scholastic honor society; was secretary of the student body; was secretary of Alpha Psi Omega drama group; and was a member of Sigma Tau Delta, a national English scholastic honor society. She served as chaplin for Theta Chi Lambda and was a senator her sophomore year. She was also a member of the Chanters, the McMurry choir.

Miss Ragle will be working on a research project at the University of Texas this year and will take her bar exam this fall.

Storm . . .

blown across the room and imbedded in furniture.

Windshields of the family car and farm pickup were battered by the hail stones. On the Hinders home roof, hail went through the shingles and knocked holes in the sheeting.

Perez, his son, Abel, and David Hinders, 10, were feeding some calves when the storm struck. They jumped in a pickup parked nearby and sat out the storm.

Mike Hinders, 16, was returning home from church when the hail began falling. He parked the family auto which he was driving and crawled between the seats to get out of the way of shattered glass from the windshield.

Hinders said about 1.30 inches of rain fell in about 30 minutes. Garden and crops on the Hinders place were damaged.

He said many of the hail stones seemed like bowling balls as they hit the ground, knocking down four or five maize stalks at one time.

R. K. Armey, who lives six miles south and four east of Canyon, said the windshields on two automobiles at his place were smashed by fist-sized hail and five windows in the house were shattered.

"I was walking out in the yard after the hail," Armey said, "and every two or three feet you could see where a hail stone had left a dent in the grass."

Although there was some damage at the R. B. Gist, Jr. farm east of Canyon, an estimate of damages was not yet known.

Gist said one portion of a shed roof was ripped off by high winds and scattered for about one-half mile. Maize leaves and stalks were also damaged, he explained.

Damage started about two and one-half miles west of Happy, cutting a swath estimated at 12 miles in width.

Crop damages near Happy ranged from light to almost total destruction. Windmills, buildings, haystacks, fences and small farm equipment received heavy damage in the area.

One farm five miles west of Happy on the county line road received heavy damage to out buildings and lot and yard fences.

Soybeans and feed grains were heavily damaged by hail.

The Leo Szydloski farm, eight miles west of Happy, had a windmill blow down, two to three thousand bales of hay scattered, aluminum pipe blown against fence posts and numerous other damages.

A wooden windmill was blown onto a house occupied by T. V. Coile near Happy.

A total of 27 utility poles owned by the Swisher County Electric Cooperative were also blown down by gusty winds.

About 125 campers in Palo Duro Canyon were stranded overnight when water estimated at 5 and one-half feet high blocked all water crossings.

Park Superintendent Jerry Mullican said although a few of the campers were in areas between the various water crossings, most of them were parked beyond the fifth water crossing.

Crews from the Texas Highway Department came into the area early Monday to move the red mud and silt that had collected on the water crossings.

Mullican said although there was some hail, it was marble-sized. The moisture, which tallied two inches Sunday, fell in about 45 minutes.

Although several last-minute claan-up preparations had to be made at the Pioneer Amphitheatre in the park, the musical "TEXAS" was performed for an audience of 1,300.

Below are the readings from the Canyon Weather Station on the campus of West Texas State University. These are for the days of August 30, 1967 to September 5, 1967.

BANNERS WELCOMING STUDENTS to the West Texas State University campus will be displayed on Canyon business establishments Saturday through Sept. 16. Examining one of the banners is Bernard Warren.

Board . . .

Attorney Elton Cox, Kuykendall testified that no one had ever suggested that these properties be omitted from the tax rolls and that there had never been a plan or intention to omit them.

Kuykendall was asked whether he had relied on a written appraisal by McMorries and Associates, tax evaluation firm employed by the school district, and whether he had in any event substituted the judgement of McMorries and Associates for his own.

Kuykendall replied in the negative.

Singleton asked Kuykendall whether in order for a taxpayer to qualify acreage under the amendment to Article VIII of the Texas Constitution he had required a certified copy of the taxpayer's income tax return from last year.

Again the tax assessor-collector replied in the negative.

Attorneys for the Taxpayers League complained of several other actions or omissions of Kuykendall and the board of equalization in regard to assessment and equalization of school taxes.

Judge Gene Jordan of 47th District Court granted a temporary restraining order Aug. 18 which halted a meeting of the board of equalization.

The restraining order was issued after Fletcher Sims, Jr., brought suit against the school board and the school district board of equalization.

Sims complained that the tax notices sent out by Kuykendall bore only the taxpayer's rendition for this year and last year's valuation.

He contended that valuation should have been set this year by the tax assessor-collector and that the taxpayer should have been notified of such assessment.

Judge Jordan ordered that an assessment be made by Kuykendall in cases where taxes were to be raised above rendition by the taxpayer and that the taxpayer be notified.

At a subsequent hearing before Jordan, Cox told the judge that the board of equalization, Kuykendall and the school board had complied with the demands of the Sims petition.

Attorneys for the Taxpayers League presented their case before the board of equalization some three hours Tuesday morning. Cox represented the school district.

Court stenographers Bill Davis and Donna Pyles, both of Amarillo, were employed by the league to record proceedings. Linda Grabbe took notes for the board of equalization.

Victor Hill, president of the Taxpayers League, indicated that further court action may be in the offing.

"If it (the equalization board hearing) doesn't come out to suit the members, we'll go all the way," Hill declared. "We feel like we're getting somewhere. They've taxed the little man off the farm and now they're after the middle man.

"We're just out to see that taxes are equalized. Now we'll see what kind of equalization is done now that discrepancies have been pointed out."

When asked specifically about his attitude toward taxing bank accounts, Singleton declared that the tax laws of Texas require it.

Eagles . . .

slated to open at halfback, while classmate Larry Robinson has drawn the starting nod at right end.

Phillips boasts tremendous backfield power in 1966 all-stater Mark Hatley at fullback. Hatley was the only non-senior to win all-state acclaim last year in Class AA circles, and heads up a list of seven returning starters from last year's District 1-AA champions who posted an excellent 9-2 record.

Coach James (Jocko) Harris, in only his first year, guided Phillips to the loop crown before falling in the bi-district playoff to eventual state semi-finalist Iowa Park. The Hawks' single other defeat was to AAA powerhouse Dumas.

Tackle Craig Hunter teams with Hatley to give Phillips a one-two all-state punch. Also on hand are four other all-district performers from 1966. Jackie McClellan shakes a lively leg at halfback and gets able blocking from tackle Mike Malone and tight end Gary Adkins, while Mike Keller directs the Hawks at quarterback. The sole newcomer to an otherwise all-district backfield is halfback Kelly Cooke, who fills the shoes of departed 9.5 sprinter Zane Reeves.

Phillips operates around two key plays. Hatley runs the fullback trap to near perfection, while quick pitches utilize the talents of McClellan.

On defense, the Blackhawks go with a 5-4 alignment.

"We're going to have to depend on straight-ahead power plays and slants against them," reveals Greenwood. "We just don't have the speed to go wide, and the passing game isn't far enough along yet."

The Eagle mentor pointed to the defensive line as the Eagles main strong point. The Canyon secondary is inexperienced and completely untested.

Ronnie Russell and Jim McBroom are the only returning starters in the offensive line, but Tommy Tucker is on hand with letterman's experience. Swatzell and Gerber in the backfield provide lettering starters from last year, but both are at new positions, giving the Eagles an inexperienced set of backs with David Thompson, up from the 'B' team, and sophomore Gilbert.

Kicking chores are still up in the air.

Canyon's tentative starting lineup:

OFFENSE--Ends, Larry Robinson and Gary Hester or Avery Thrasher; Tackles, Ronnie Russell and Tommy Tucker; Guards, Jim McBroom and Chuck Hester; Center, Fred Jenkins; Quarterback, Phil Swatzell; Halfbacks, David Thompson and Gary Gilbert; Fullback, Dwayne Gerber.

DEFENSE--Nose guards, Gerber; Tackles, Russell and Tucker; Ends, Thrasher and Robinson; Linebackers, McBroom, Swatzell, and Gilbert; Halfbacks, Thompson and Teddy Walker; Safety, Tony Gibson.

several are West Texas State University students.

Directors of the production were William A. and Margaret Moore. He is an instructor of speech at WTSU and she aids in workshop and musical productions.

Neil Hess, dance instructor from Amarillo, was choreographer for the show and Royal Brantley, WTSU associate professor of music, was musical director.

The Executive Board of the foundation has voted to present the production again during the summer of 1968. They have already arranged conferences between the directors and Green.

Ballot . . .

Boundry lines for the seven communities are based on old school districts in the county.

The community committee members meet about three times yearly to help decide on agriculture program matters, review yields on which farms are set and anything that directly involves the farms in their coummunity.

One important change in this year's election procedures, Lloyd pointed out, will be the requirement for the wife of a producer to sign her given name when signing the certification on the election envelopes.

"The wife must sign her name as 'Jane Doe' instead of 'Mrs. John Doe' in order for us to count the ballot," Lloyd emphasized.

ROSE ELLEN PARKER, who was a student in France for two years, is shown here with some tapestry imported from Paris. Rose Ellen visited several countries in Europe during her stay abroad.

Miss Parker Returns From School Abroad

After spending two years in Europe, mostly in France, Rose Ellen Parker will be enrolling in the University of Texas this fall.

"I'll miss Paris," said Rose Ellen, "but I'm glad to be back home."

Miss Parker at first attended Sorbonne and took a civilization course designed for people just learning French. After that she attended the American College in Paris.

At the university, Rose Ellen will have a triple major, French, speech and drama and secondary education. She hopes to go into the diplomatic corps after completing her education.

Rose Ellen said that while she was in school she particularly enjoyed being able to actually see things about which she was studying.

"In art we were able to go to the Lourve and see world's greatest art museum," she declared. "At the time we were studying Picasso, Picasso had all his works, painting, sculpture and ceramics, on display. It took three buildings to house everything."

She said she met people from all over the world in Paris. In addition to this, it was easy to visit all the countries of Europe using Paris as a base.

She actually visited in France, Belgium, Spain, England, Germany, East Germany, Greece, Italy and North Africa. She also visited Gibraltar, a British bastion guarding the Straits of Gibraltar, gateway to the strategis Mediterranean. Gibraltar is sometimes known as the pillars of Hercules but Britons fondly refer to it as "The Rock."

Rose Ellen was impressed with the comparison of East Berlin and West Berlin. West Berlin is rebuilt and modern, she said, while East Berlin still shows the marks of World War II.

"Some of the buildings in East Berlin are just shells," she related.

She walked in to East Berlin across famous Check Point Charlie. The tourists were required to walk through disinfecting powder before going into East Berlin. East Germans say West Germans have brought diseases into East Berlin. Rose Ellen is convinced that this is only propaganda.

She said she had one brush with the Red police. She took a picture of a German soldier and he and her group were interrogated about the incident.

She saw the infamous wall which divides the city of Berlin. She said it has a electrically charged pipe across the top of it now and the top also is strewn with broken glass to discourage defection.

She said there seems to be plenty of merchandise in stores of East Berlin but the stock is strewn rather than displayed.

"It's like walking from progress to disparity," said Rose Ellen. "It's that different." However, she reported, the new generation in East Berlin seems to be satisfied with what it has.

She talked to one German who said the wall was unfortunate but necessary.

Rose Ellen said she found the people of Spain to be a warm hearted people. Germans, she said, are most like Americans.

English criticize America because only a short time ago they held the position of leadership in the world now held by the United States.

She said the French look upon De Gaulle as a necessary evil.

"The French are openly critical of America but they do not hate us," said Rose Ellen, "But that's the price we pay for being a world leader."

HOMEMAKER OF THE WEEK, Mrs. L. K. Bolton, shares favorite recipes with our readers this week including a Scotch Cake, a refrigerator Fruit Cake and Tea Cakes or cookies. Mrs. Bolton is shown relaxing at the family's kitchen table.

COOK OF THE WEEK
Shares Favorites

BY LORENA MILLER

Mrs. L. K. Bolton shares three favorite dessert recipes with our readers this week including an extra-quick Scotch cake, a Refrigerator Fruit Cake, and an old-fashioned Tea Cake or cookie.

Mrs. Bolton, the former Jewell Lilliard, was raised at Clarendon. She graduated from high school in Clarendon and then completed studies at a Business College in Fort Worth.

Mrs. Bolton has a sister, Mrs. J. W. Billingsley, who lives in Canyon. She also has a sister, Mrs. Maude Nicholls, at Denton and a brother, J. N. Lillard, in Sweetwater, Tennessee.

The Boltons were married in 1934. He was a native of Wheeler. He has a brother and three sisters living in Canyon. They are Lou Bolton, Mrs. Ophelia Murphy, Mrs. Vera Beasley and Mrs. T. E. Burgess. Another brother, Lloyd Bolton, lives in Canyon and sisters, Mrs. Cecil Richerson and Mrs. Hattie Tate, live in Wheeler and Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, respectively.

Moving to Canyon 29 years ago, the Boltons have lived in their present home at 1708 Sixth Avenue for 27 years. They have three daughters, Mrs. Bill Cunningham of Monte Vista, Colorado; Mrs. James Kauffman of Corsicana and Mrs. Leonard Miller of Corpus Christi.

Daughters of the Boltons are graduates of Canyon High School and all three attended West Texas State University.

The Boltons attend the First Baptist Church of Canyon, where she is active in the Woman's Missionary Union. Mrs. Bolton is also a member of the Canyon Home Demonstration Club here.

Both are apt sports fans and like all types of athletic events, both on television and the playing field, according to Mrs. Bolton. He is the market manaber at Bellah's Supermarket in Canyon.

Mrs. Bolton's favorite hobbies include needlepoint and handwork and refinishing furniture. She is especially proud of a bedroom suite which she refinished for her only granddaughter, Kim Kauffman. The suite had belonged to the child's great-grandmother. The Boltons also have seven grandsons.

Her favorite recipes include:

SCOTCH CAKE
2 cups flour
2 cups sugar
1 stick oleo
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup water
4 Tbsp. cocoa
1/2 cup buttermilk
1 tsp. soda
2 eggs, beaten
1 tsp. vanilla

Sift flour and sugar together in large mixing bowl. Combine oleo, shortening, water and cocoa in saucepan and bring to a boil. Pour over flour-sugar mixture and mix well.

Add buttermilk (in which the soda has been dissolved), beaten eggs and vanilla. Blend together and bake in oblong cake pan at 350 for 25 minutes. Frost while hot with the following icing.

ICING
1/2 stick oleo
2 Tbsp. cocoa
4 Tbsp. milk
1/2 box powdered sugar

Mix oleo, cocoa and milk. Heat together until comes to boil then remove from heat and add powdered sugar until of spreading consistence. Spread on hot cake.

(Suggest that the icing be started about five minutes before cake is to be removed from oven.)

REFRIGERATOR FRUIT CAKE
3/4 lb butter or oleo
1 lb. marshmallows
1 lb. Graham cracker crumbs
1 lb. pecan halves
1 lb. dates, chopped
1/2 lb. candied cherries, cut
1/2 lb. candied pineapple, cut
4 Tbsp. brown sugar
2 tsp. vanilla

Combine cut fruits, nuts, cracker curmbs, sugar and vanilla in large pan. Mix evenly and set aside.

Melt butter and marshmallows. Stir until smooth and pour over fruit mixture. Mix well while warm. Mold into desired shape and wrap in wax paper or foil and store in refrigerator.

TEA CAKES
4 cups flour
2 cups sugar
4 level tsp. baking powder
1 cup shortening
1/4 tsp. salt
1-2 tsp. vanilla
4 eggs

Mix all together. If needed, add a small amount of milk to make dough of a stiff consistency. Roll out 1/4 inch thick. Cut in desired shapes and bake at 350 degrees until light brown. A good basic recipe for decorating cookies.

Miss Reynolds - McGehee Wed In Dallas Rites

Miss Shannon Rose Reynolds became the bride of Kelly Dwight McGehee in double ring nuptial rites read September 2 at St. Monica Catholic Church in Dallas with Rev. Robert Wilson officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Texas Shannon Reynolds of Dallas. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. D. K. McGehee of Happy.

White gladioli and white rosebuds in tall white columnar vases decorated the church altar. Orgahist for the musical ceremony was Eric Kaszynski.

The bride chose a formal gown of white silk organza for the wedding ceremony. Alencon lace created the molded bodice of the gown which was designed with a soft circlet neckline outlined with natural flower scallops of the lace. Tiny seed pearls marked the center of the flowers on the dress. The long sleeves were terminated in petal points over the hand and the gown featured an A-line skirt of silk organza encircled with twin appliques of Alencon lace. Her formal court train of English net was outlined with deep scallops of lace. She was escorted to the altar by her father.

Her bridal attendants were dressed in formals with an Empire bodice, long sleeves of moss green chiffon over beige crepe, and sheath skirt. Their two-tone trains were attached with chiffon roses and each wore a circlet of green velvet leaves and veiling for a headdress.

Joan Miranda of Dallas served as maid of honor. The matron of honor was Mrs. John Montgomery of Lubbock and bridesmaids were Denise Barber of Fort Worth, Mary Nelle Callicoatte of Stamford and Mrs. James Carola of Houston.

Harold Denny of Lubbock was best man. Groomsmen were Lindsey Taylor of Amarillo, Mark L. Morris, Jr. of Topeka, Kansas, Mickey Reynolds of Dallas and Jim Truett of Louisiana.

Ushers for the occasion were Pat Reynolds and Roger Cutcher of Dallas, Gary Taylor of Amarillo and Eddie Williams of Lubbock.

The bridegroom's mother wore an eggshell brocade formal featuring a fitted skirt and a rolled collar. Both wore long formal gloves, matching shoes and hats for the occasion.

The couple was honored with a reception in the Sherwood Forest Club in Dallas. The guest table and bride's serving table were both accented with tangerine carnation arrangements.

The bride's table was covered with a silk organza floor-length cloth edged with a lace overlay folded to the edge of the table. The five-tiered wedding cake was flanked by tall candelabra featuring white and apricot carnations.

Pale green accented the groom's table where a dark cake and lime punch were served. It was covered with a matching floor length cloth and accented with silver candelabra.

For the wedding trip, the bride changed to a blush-pink suit with matching accessories.

A graduate of Texas Technological College, the bride earned the B.S. degree in elementary education. She was on the Dean's Honor List and was a member of the Angel Flight and the Texas State Teachers Association.

The bridegroom also graduated from Texas Technological College with a B.S in dairy industry. He was a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity and the Dairy Industry Club. He did graduate work at Colorado State University and is currently studying law at Baylor University Law School in Waco.

Among speakers for the seminar were several fashion world notables.

Mrs. Parker, who owns and operates "Dan's Fifth Avenue Store" in Canyon will serve locally as co-ordinator for an available program on training for the fashion world with Natalie Napp as instructor. TONS OF SANDSTONE have been unearthed in Palo Duro Canyon State Park for use in a mammoth construction and remodeling project. Jerry Mullican, superintendent, is shown examining some of the sandstone that was blasted from an old quarry near Devils Tombstone.

Palo Duro Quarry Yields Sandstone

Visitors to Palo Duro Canyon State Park have been startled by the resonating booms coming from Sunday Canyon in the area of the Devils Tombstone.

The sounds, however, Park Superintendent Jerry Mullican said, are of progress--not the echoes of some long forgotten Indian battle.

The sounds, which echo from an old quarry last used by the Civilian Conservation Corps in the mid-1930's, are evidence that a $500,000-plus reconstruction project has begun.

Some 3,000 yards of sandstone from the quarry will be used to provide materials for the improvements which will include a new entrance to the park, concessions building, additions to the headquarters building and new restroom facilities.

The gigantic project, the first major work at the park since the existing buildings were constructed, should be completed some time next year, Mullican explained.

When the present buildings were constructed in the park during the 1930's, a road was cut through the underbrush to allow the movement of heavy equipment into the area.

After the old CCC road was reopened to the quarry, state workmen began drilling cylindrical holes in the sandstone formations where a total of 1,000 one-pound sticks of dynamite was placed to dislodge the rock.

The sandstone, that lies in about eight-inch thick sheets, has been stockpiled near the park headquarters for later construction work.

Original work on buildings at the park was begun by the CCC in the mid 30's but was never finished due to World War II. The quarry is located about four miles south east of the park headquarters.

The quarry area, Mullican said, would be closed to the public when the needed materials have been obtained.

"It's a remote area that never has had much travel other than horseback," Mullican pointed out.

After discussing the possibility of using the quarry with members of the park planning board in Austin, the decision was made to use the old CCC area again.

"They talked about having the contractor bring in his own rock from outside the park, but this was felt to be too expensive," Mullican said "There were many, many thousands of yards of sandstone taken out of the quarry for the buildings, fences and the like in the '30's."

After the needed material is taken from the quarry, Mullican said plans call for stockpiling some of the sandstone for future construction work.

Other large deposits of the sandstone may be seen on the steep slope leading to the canyon's floor, although the rock has been dyed red by chemicals in other higher formations. The rock atop Devils Tombstone is also of sandstone.

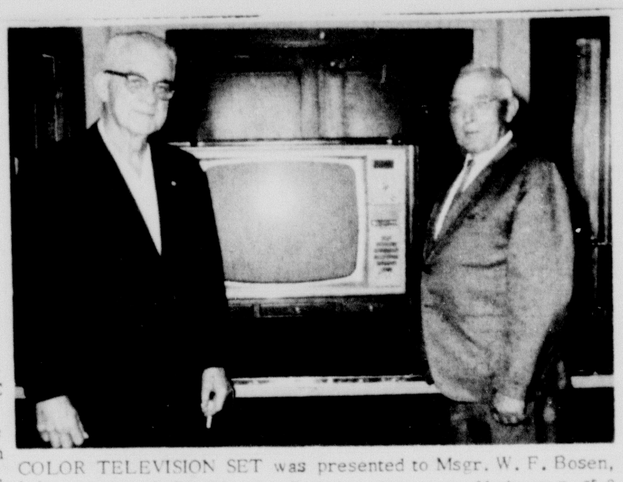
The quarry work is only one phase of the mammoth construction program at the park, Mullican added.

The paving of three miles of new road from the second water crossing to the turnaround (commonly known as "Cow Camp") was recently started by the Gilvin-Terrill Construction Company of Amarillo.

After the headquarters building is revamped and other paving projects completed, a six-inch eight-mile long water line will be laid. The line will tap the Lake Meredith aqueduct.

The water system project will include a treatment and filtration plant with 50,000 gallon storage.

Funds for the construction and remodeling will come from the state, with matching Federal funds.



COLOR TELEVISION SET was presented to Msgr. W. F. Bosen, left, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Umbarger, at a going away dinner last week. Ben Koch, master of ceremonies made the presentation. Msgr. Bosen has been transferred to Amarillo.

TV Set Given Msgr. Bosen

Msgr. W. F. Bosen, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Umbarger, was given a color television set by members of his parish at a going away dinner last week.

Msgr. Bosen, who has been transferred to St. Mary's Catholic Church in Amarillo, was presented the television set by Ben Koch, master of ceremonies. About 125 members of the parish attended the affair.

The box supper honoring Msgr. Bosen was sponsored by the Knights of Colombus, the Altar Society and the Sodality.

The monsignor came to Umbarger nine years ago. He will replace Father Mathew Matthieisen, who has been transferred to Panhandle.

New pastor for St. Mary's in Umbarger will be Father Matt Schaefle. He is being transferred from Lubbock.

Art Works On Display

An art display, featuring the works of more than 50 Coppini Academy of Fine Arts members, will hang at the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum through September.

The display, which opened Sunday, contains some 160 paintings dealing with every subject from portraits to water colors and oils. The paintings will hang in both museum gallaries.

Prominent artists with works on display include Ramon Froman, Harold Roney and Rolla Taylor.

Taylor, the oldest member of the San Antonio group, has four works in the showing.

The paintings range in price from $35 to $400.

Kiwanis Club Nominations Set This Week

Nominations for the 1968 slate of officers and seven directors for the Canyon Kiwanis Club will be made at the group's noon meeting Friday, according to Benny Cooper, nominating committee chairman.

The election will be held in two weeks.

Ken Olson is current president of the organization.

The firm does silk screen printing and its Canyon office is located in the building just south of American Legion Hall.

It is operated by Kenton Knorpp of Canyon and Jim Weatherall of Amarillo. The firm also has a place of business in Amarillo.

Knorpp describes silk screen printing as printing which uses paint instead of ink and cannot be done on a regular printing press.

Victory-Craft sells mostly to schools and sales are made during the school year. Production is done in the summer.

Knorpp lists a dozen specialties such as school activity supplies, ribbons, decals and booster buttons as well as many others.

He explained that his firm also sells industrial decals, truck decals and magnetic car signs. This year Victory-Craft is printing parking stickers and traffic signs for West Texas State University.

"Some of our best business this year came out of Arizona," Knorpp declared.

The firm also sells bumper stickers. "We're looking forward to election year," Knorpp said.

Few Law Breakers Officers Declare

Canyon and Randall County have few law enforcement problems, members of the Kiwanis Club here were told last week.

Mayor Paul Lindsey, Canyon Police Chief L. D. Caldwell and Randall County Sheriff L. S. (Slim) Johnston headed a panel discussion for the Kiwanians as part of the clubs project, "Operation Law and Order".

Mayor Lindsey pointed out that the two primary ways in which the citizenry could aid law enforcement officers was to be willing to serve on juries and to help prosecute criminals.

"I think we are all a part of law and order," the mayor declared.

Johnston said he had been to several training schools and the Federal Bureau of Investigation's national academy in order to learn the problems that confront the law enforcement agencies.

"If you can't support me, I can't enforce the law by myself," Johnston noted. "Authority is a wonderful thing, but that is no excuse to always use it. Authority is sometimes abused a lot of times --an officer should never abuse it."

"If you want a better town and more protection," Caldwell said of support for the law, "you, the citizens of Canyon, are the ones who are going to have to do it."

Residents may want officers to enforce the law, he continued, but they often refuse to sign a complaint or appear in court.

"You have a lot of protection, but you just have to exercise it to get the best from it," he said.

As for juvenile deliquents in Canyon, Caldwell said there were very few.

"Very few of the teenagers will turn you down if you need help," he stated.

The possibility of a teen town center for Canyon was also discussed by Johnston and Caldwell.

"It's a fine gesture," Johnston said, "but it can't be halfhearted. If you drag behind them (teenagers) it would be a dead thing."

Caldwell said that for such a program to be effective, a wide variety of activities should be planned.

"You can build the facilities for the teenagers, but you can't make them go," Caldwell concluded.

"If you see something that needs reporting," the mayor commented, "Do it. Our time is your time."

The law enforcement study will be year-around, said Ken Olson, Kiwanis president.

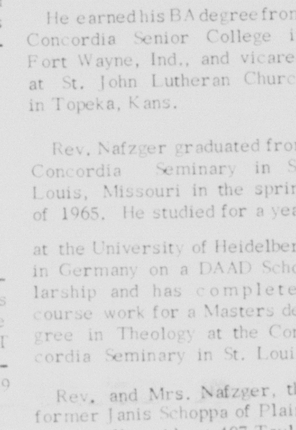
Teachers Reception Saturday

The West Texas State University chapter of the Texas Association of College Teachers will honor new WT faculty members with a reception Saturday evening from 7-9 p.m.

The reception will be held in the garden at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ples Harper, 2523 Fifth Avenue. In the event of inclement weather, the occasion will be staged in the formal lounge of the Student Union Building on campus.

To Install Lutheran Pastor Here

The Rev. Samuel H. Nafzger will be installed as pastor of the Tulia-Canyon Lutheran Parish Sunday at 3 p.m. in the St. Paul Lutheran Church here.



REV. SAMUEL H. NAFZGER

The installation sermon will be delivered by the Rev. John D. Huber, Jr. of Christ Lutheran Church in Amarillo. The Rite of Installation will be performed by the Rev. Elmer Neunaber of Redeemer Lutheran Church in Lubbock, assisted by the Rev. Herbert Driessner of St. John Lutheran Church in Dumas. The Rev. William Schuster of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Plainview and other Lutheran pastors of this area will also assist in the ceremonies.

Rev. Nafzger attended Plainview public schools and Concordia Academy and Junior College in Austin, graduating as valedictorian of both his high school and college classes.

He earned his BA degree from Concordia Senior College in Fort Wayne, Ind., and vicared at St. John Lutheran Church in Topeka, Kans.

Rev. Nafzger graduated from Concordia Seminary in St Louis, Missouri in the spring of 1965. He studied for a year at the University of Heidelberg in Germany on a DAAD Scholarship and has completed course work for a Masters degree in Theology at the Concordia Seminary in St. Louis.

Rev. and Mrs. Nafzger, the former Janis Schoppa of Plainview, will reside at 407 Taylor Lane here.

Groups Arrive At WTSU Early

Two groups of students returned to the West Texas State University campus early this week to initiate activities for the fall semester. Varsity football players have been on campus since Aug. 30 for workouts prior to opening the season in Buffalo Bowl Sept. 16 against Montana State.

Buffalo Marching Band members, expected to be a record 200, will hold both day and night marching and playing sessions until classes start Sept. 18. New bandsmen arrived on campus Monday, and others began practice Tuesday.

A student leadership conference, modeled on the first conference last year, is scheduled today through Saturday at the Methodist Camp in Ceta Canyon, according to Dr. Paige Carruth, dean of student life.

More than 70 campus leaders, most of them presidents of campus organizations, or members of the Student Senate, Student Activities Council, or Student Court, will participate in the three-day meet.

Dr. Jack Holland, dean of students at the University of Texas, will be main speaker and consultant for the conference. He will speak at an afternoon and a 7 p.m. meeting today. Students will register until noon today, with an opening session at 1 p.m. Conference chairman is Martha Woodward of Amarillo.

Speakers at the opening session will be Dr. Carruth, President James P. Cornette, Jim Holston of Idalou, 1967-68 student body president, and Dr. Holland.

Sessions Friday will include a panel on "Morals and Ethics," led by a number of campus ministers, and discussion groups. Don Hileman, executive director of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, will speak on "Effective Meetings." Saturday's closing sessions will include a panel on campus problems, lunch and a talk by President Cornette.

Students attending the conference will stay overnight at the camp.
